"Clay County Manager Retires"

After serving 33 years (1981-2014) on the Board of Managers, Buffalo-Red River Watershed District (BRRWD), Curtis M. Nelson has decided to retire. Watershed managers are appointed by their respective counties to serve three-year terms. Mr. Nelson's term expired on August 31, 2014. His replacement will be Mark T. Anderson, Moorhead, MN.

During his tenure, Mr. Nelson served as Treasurer for over 30 years. Mr. Nelson was also the BRRWD's representative on the Red River Watershed Management Board. Bruce Albright, Office Administrator, said, "Mr. Nelson's dedication and leadership is going to be missed."

To honor Mr. Nelson for his dedicated service, the BRRWD is going to have an Open House on Friday, December 12, 2014, at the Galaxie Supper Club, east of Barnesville, from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM. The public is invited to attend.
